Subject: Urgent Request Regarding Pending Extradition to the Russian Federation

Message:

Dear Madam President,

My name is Dmitrii Lagovskii. I am a lawyer, a citizen of the Russian Federation of Ukrainian origin, currently residing legally in Belgrade, Serbia.

I respectfully request your urgent attention regarding the imminent risk of my extradition to Russia. My asylum application has been rejected by the Serbian Asylum Office and the Asylum Commission, and the final decision now awaits the signature of the Serbian Minister of Justice.

The extradition request is formally based on fraud allegations. In reality, the prosecution is political and directly linked to my anti-war position regarding the invasion of Ukraine and my professional activity as a lawyer.

Criminalizing legal defense contradicts the UN Basic Principles on the Role of Lawyers, which require protection of lawyers from intimidation and political pressure.

As a reserve officer of Ukrainian origin, I left Russia to avoid participation in the war against Ukraine. Russian authorities explicitly offered to terminate the criminal case if I agreed to sign a military contract and deploy to the front line. These proposals were documented.

If extradited, I face a real risk of politically motivated imprisonment, ill-treatment, or forced military deployment, raising serious concerns under Articles 2 and 3 of the European Convention on Human Rights.

I respectfully ask the European Commission to urgently raise this matter within the EU-Serbia dialogue before an irreversible decision is taken.
